1. Transmitted herewith are personal papers taken from LAECHERT by the BfV. They include a fragment of the envelope in which you were interested. It would appear that the photocopy was more complete than the attached envelope. The BfV regrets the delay, pointing out that the original envelope was (contrary to what you were told) in Berlin and had to be sent for.

2. The BfV asks that we return the attached papers and requests a summary or copy of our interrogation of Subject, whose BfV debriefing was prematurely terminated by the AIS request for access.
